

2017 AMHA CONFERENCE, TRARALGON, VICTORIA.

25th-29th SEPTEMBER, plus pre- and post- conference tours.

FIRST CALL FOR ABSTRACTS and BRIEF BIOGRAPHIES of AUTHORS

1. Abstracts are invited from people interested in presenting papers at the Traralgon conference.
2. Abstracts must be submitted using the template available on the AMHA website. This method was successfully used last year for the Cobar conference.
3. Abstracts should be emailed to Sandra Kippen and Nick Williams: dskippen@dodo.com.au , nicolahw9@gmail.com
4. The abstracts will be reviewed by an editorial panel, and authors contacted if major changes are suggested. Authors will be advised as soon as abstracts are accepted.
5. Authors are also asked to submit a short (maximum 200 word) autobiography, to be printed in the conference proceedings. Bios should be on a separate A4 document, using Times New Roman font, body text 12 point, headings 14 point. Borders should be set to 2.0cm on top, bottom and right, and 2.5cm on the left.
6. Both abstracts and bios may be submitted from now on, but the FINAL DATE for consideration is JUNE 1st.
7. Although the theme for the conference is: 'Mining – from the Mountains to the Sea', papers on any aspect of mining history are welcome, particularly those based on the local areas.
8. Authors should aim for 20min presentations, followed by 5min for questions. Time limits will be enforced.
9. People who prefer not to deliver papers are encouraged to submit abstracts for posters.
10. Please direct any queries to Sandra or Nick.
