

AMHA Annual Conference, Burra, 18-25 September 2022. Preliminary Program

Please note: This program is subject to changes. A final program will be issued closer to the conference.

Day	Time	Activities
Sunday	4.00 pm	Registration in Town Hall
	6.00 pm	Regional Council of Goyder Reception
Monday	8.30 am	Registration
	9.00 am	Acknowledgement of Traditional Custodians of Land and President's welcome
	9.15 am	Peter Bell Burra's Place in Early Australian Mining History
	9.55 am	Ross Both The Burra Mine Story post-1877
	10.30 am	Morning tea
	11.00 am	Christopher Davey Cornish Timber Support Technology used in the Burra Burra Mine
	11.30 am	Keynote speaker: Darren Peacock Mining Heritage for the Twenty-first Century
	12.20 pm	Ken McQueen Sidwell the Bal Maiden: from Burra to Cobar (Poster)
	12.30 pm	Lunch
	1.30 pm	Geotourism: celebrating mining heritage Angus Robinson Geotourism: Conserving Heritage and Generating Post-Mining Economies for Communities
	2.00 pm	Patrick R. James Celebration of Mining History in UNESCO Global Geoparks
	2.30 pm	Colin Conor Yorke Peninsula, South Australia: IOCGs - where it all began
	3.00 pm	Afternoon tea
	3.30 pm	Geotourism: celebrating mining heritage (cont.) Susan Pearl Keeping History Alive at the Blinman Heritage Mine
	4.00 pm	Peter Waggitt and Mark Asendorf Northern Territory Heritage: Update on the Pine Creek Miners' Park and a Proposed Geotrail
4.30 pm	Ian Lewis A Proposed Goyder Geotrail Centred on Burra, South Australia: Bringing Geology and Mining to the Public's Appreciation
Tuesday	9.00 am	Bus and walking tour of Burra minesite and town
Wednesday	9.00 am	Keynote speaker: Jason Shute Ayers and the Burra: 'Australia's first mining giant', Politician and Serial Premier – the Man and the Myths
	10.00 am	Sharon Burnell Surgeons and Medical Practice at Burra, 1848-1852
	10.30 am	Morning tea
	11.00 am	Mining Personalities Christopher J. Davey Henry Roach: the Burra Burra Mine Captain
	11.30 am	Geoffrey Randall The Life and Career of Uriah Dudley: Mining Engineer, Inventor and Freemason
	12.00	Judy M. Fander Lionel CE Gee SM: Gold Warden and Senior Public Servant: his Contribution to South Australia's Mining Industry, 1882-1924
	12.30 pm	Lunch

	1.30 pm	Gordon H. Boyce East and West of Aden: The Aden Coal Co., 1881-1910
	2.00 pm	Nick Langsford Pitwork at the Tasmania Gold Mine, Beaconsfield
	2.30 pm	James A. Lerk Bendigo's Central Nell Gwynne Mine: Born out of the Great Depression
	3.00 pm	Afternoon tea
	3.30 pm	David Cameron Duel for the Dunes: Mineral Sands Mining and the Socio-Environmental Change on Mid North Coast NSW
	4.00 pm	Susan Arthure The Occupation of Baker's Flat, an Unusual Nineteenth Century Irish Settlement near Kapunda
	4.30 pm	AMHA Annual General Meeting
Thursday	9.00 am	Excursion to Kapunda historic minesite and museum
Friday	9.00 am	Mineral Exploration Case Histories Aert Driessen Grassroots copper exploration in the Flinders Ranges in the 1960s
	9.30 am	Geoff Hudson The Discovery of Olympic Dam: Revisiting the Record
	10.00 am	Joseph Ogierman The Angas Deposit, South Australia: a Tale of Discovery 150 years in the Making
	10.30 am	Morning tea
	11.00 am	Sources of mining history: getting the facts Workshop led by three experienced mining history researchers
	12.30 pm	Lunch
	1.30 pm	Janette Lange German Miners in South Australian Mining History
	2.00 pm	Anne Both Invisible People: Muleteers in South Australia, 1850s and Beyond
	2.30 pm	Gordon H. Boyce 'Cory Out, ...': Cory Brothers' Coal Merchant Business, 1888-1914
	3.00 pm	Afternoon tea
	3.30 pm	Roger Kellaway The Bishop of Tasmania's Yacht and the California Gold Rush
	4.00 pm	Nic Haygarth 'Over hill and dale with an aching back': the History of the Adamsfield Track, south-western Tasmania
	4.30 pm	Heather Nimmo Putting the Personal into Writing Mining History
	7.00 pm	Conference Dinner at Burra Hotel
Saturday – Sunday		Post-conference tour to Wallaroo and Moonta

