

Journal of Australasian Mining History Best Paper Award

An award of $500 and 12 months free AMHA membership is offered for the best paper published in the refereed section of the Journal of Australasian Mining History by an early career historian.

Prior membership of AMHA is not a requirement for the award. The award will be announced at an annual conference for a paper published in the preceding issue of the Journal.

The award can be offered in two categories:

- a completing undergraduate student (including a 4th year of Honors);
- an early career historian with up to 5 years experience after graduation from a Bachelor Degree.

Candidates should indicate their eligibility to the Editor of the Journal on submission of their article.

Eligible papers will be judged by members of the Editorial Board of the Journal.
